

Research topics of Kentaka Aruga's lab

- Contriving designs to solve cross-regional environmental problems such as global warming, biodiversity destruction, air pollution, and so on.
- Analyzing policies to promote sustainable use of resources such as energy, minerals, and agricultural, forestry, and fishery products.
- Conducting research to change human behavior toward a more sustainable way of living.

Keywords: environmental economics, resource economics, energy economics, agricultural economics, econometrics, behavioral economics, environmental awareness
Homepage: arugakentaka.web.fc2.com/english.html